FATE OF FOUR OTHER SOCIAL ISTS ALSO AT STAKE.

January 8.-The

ctions to the jury Judge lared the defendants had a entertain, publish, speak and

Action Must Be Proved. ere can be no substantive charges

Professor David A. Rothrock, who has been a member of the Indiana university faculty here for the last twenty-seven years, has received a year's leave of absence from the university. Professor Rothrock was elected last fail to represent Brown and Monroe counties in the house of representatives in the state legislature. During his abserce his place in the mathematics department will be taken by Dr. H. E. Wolfe, who was a member of the faculty last year, but was called to the army this last fail before the opening of school. Professor David A. Rothrock, who has Representative's Daughter Dead. Charles E. Dean, representative in the legislature from Jefferson and Scott invoke the blessing when the house convenes tomorrow, and it is probable that Judige Lawson Harvey, of the supreme court, will administer the oaths of office.

Continued from Page One. nem visited the senate and house hambers and looked at the seats they vill occupy for the next sixty days.

Chambers Fitted Up. e Shultz, statehouse custodia in time for the legislature have worked all night of asions and may do so touight, when the gavels fall every is be found in order, he say many new furnishings an ventilation system the chartest that a complete change of that a complete change of the system is a system is a complete change of the system.

Caucus of Republican Senators. raucus of the Republican senavill open at 7:30 tonight in Room will be chosen secretary of the e, and W. M. Louden, of Bloom-

Gets Year's Leave of Absence.

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., January 8 .-

Bishop Fout to Give Invocation

Bishop H, H. Fout, of the United Brethren church of Indianapolis, will

Continued from Page One. ciss element has plenty of weapons taken from the munition factories at Spandau. While the machine guns were fring and bombs were dropping, moving picture operators were busily recording the scenes enacted in the streets. It was announced recently that the American army had sent moving picture operators to Persin. in the field. Dave Blackmore, of seburg, a former member of the appeared to be the leading candi-for the position, although E. E. n, of Plainfield, and Robert H. of Indianapolis, also were candipicture operators to Berlin.

Reports Agree on Fighting.

The dislocation of the telegraph service has prevented anything more than meager and scattered reports of what has been happening in Berlin getting through, but all the dispatches agree that severe street fighting occurred Tuesday.

A Spartacan delegation Tuesday endeavored to confer with the government, but was notified that the government was notified to confer with the g Reports Agree on Fighting. ing clerk of the house and apntly was to be selected on trial by Speaker and his assistants in orzing the house.

The candidates were in the field for Democratic floor leadership of the Three candidates were in the field for the Democratic floor leadership of the house, Richard H. Griffiths, of Lewis; Seorge Cooper, of Greenfield, and Sam lenz probably would be the Democratical public and private buildings leadership with the government members could not discuss any matters until all public and private buildings leadership.

the Democratic floor leadership of the house, Richard H. Griffiths, of Lewis; George Cooper, of Greenfield, and Sam Benz, of English. It appeared that Sam Benz probably would be the Democrat selected.

ATTACKED BY "FERRETS."

Proposed Tax Reform Bill Already Arousing Opposition.

The tax reform bill, which promised to be one of the leading measures of the session, is already being attacked by the "tax ferrets," which has given ground for the point that the bill is designed to put more property on the tax duplicate, and hence it would reduce the business of the "ferrets."

but was notined that the government buildings occupied by the counter-revolutionists had been vacated.

At that time Spartacan forces were massed at several places where weapons and armored motor cars have been concentrated. In Wilhelmstrasse the government forces awaited the attack. Government frozes awaited the attack. Government forces awaited the attack. Gove curred Sunday in front of the Kaiserhoff hotel, when one person was killed and eight others were wounded. According to a witness, some of the troops turned against the government and others refused to obey the government's orders to recapture the quarters of the Wolff Bureau, the semi-official news agency. On the other kand, a marine division is said to be supporting the government.

Foreign Office Attacked. The Spartacans Monday refused all offers of the government to negotiate and attacked the foreign office, the chancellor's palace and other of the ministers when eighteen persons are reported to have been killed.

ministers when eighteen persons are reported to have been killed.

The Spartacans, at the latest reports, were holding the royal stables and the police headquarters, where Police Chief Eichhorn, over whose tenure of office the latest trouble arose, had gathered large quantities of arms, while other Spartacan supporters were supplied with arms and munitions which they captured when they selzed the arsenals and munition depots at Spandau.

General Groener, who was recently dismissed by the government for alleged complicity in a royalist plot, is said to have offered to occupy the capital with forty reliable divisions. countles, received word last night of the death of his daughter from in-fluenza in Oregon. Mrs. Dean, who came with her husband to Indianapolis to stay during the legislative session, will leave for Oregon tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Dean are living at the Barton hotel. Mr. Dean is a fruit grower and farmer of Marble Hill, Jefferson county. Other Clashes Monday.

Some fighting occurred at other points there were few victims. One clash came when the Spartacans attempted to storm the new central telegraph station in the Oranienburgerstrasse. The government soldiers in the building used hand grenades to drive the radicals away.

There was another affray at the corner of Leipzigerstrasse and Wilhelmstrasse when the Spartacans fired on a small group of government soldiers. The government forces returned the fire and then disarmed the Spartacans after one man had been killed and several wounded.

The confidence of the government and when the Spartacans attempted to storm wounded.

The confidence of the government appears not to be unjustified by the events of Monday. The government soldiers showed a quality of decision that they had not displayed before.

U. S. FLAG HAULED DOWN.

Rioters Make Wild Demonstration COMPLAINT OF STREET LIGHT. Before Adlon Hotel in Berlin.

the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Company to lay temporary tracks from the junction at Virginia avenue and Louisiana street wast to Alabama street, south to South street, and then west to Delaware street to connect with the street car line at South and Delaware streets.

This will enable the traction companies to come into the downtown part of the city over South street and Kenlight and the Liebknecht element, according to a dispatch filed in Berlin yesterday and received today.

The dispatch said the truce will continue while the rival factions discuss the government's demands that the Spartacans evacuate all government buildings and surrender Police President Eichhorn. The Spartacans will be represented at the conferences by their parliamentary delegates while Ebert's ministers will act as the government's delegates. Louisiana street wast to Alabama street, south to South street, and then west to Delaware street to connect with the street car line at South and Delaware streets.

This will enable the traction companies to come into the downtown part of the city over South street and Kentucky avenue while the track elevation work over Virginia avenue is being completed. The construction work is necessary at this time because of the closing of the Virginia avenue viaduct.

Version of Wolff News Bureau. Mr. Reld and Mr. Henry also took up with the board the question of increas-BASLE, January 8.-The German ing the fare for carrying city passengers on their limited trains to the city limits. The fare now is 5 cents, according to the franchise contracts of the companies with the city. They said they knew this was a matter for the public service commission, but thought the city should recommend favorable action on the question to the company's request. The traction men said they preferred not to carry any city passengers at all on their limited trains, but that if they did they should have a 10-cent fare. The board said it would consider the matter. ing the fare for carrying city passen- semi-official Wolff bureau, which was

The board ordered twelve street lights in Broadway, between Forty-second and Forty-sixth streets. Frank C. Lingenfelter, city civil engineer, reported to the board that tests of gas supplied in December by the Citiaens Gas Company showed that the quality ranged from 507 to 591 British thermal units. The franchise provides that the gas shall test 600 British thermal units. REALIZED BY NATIONS

Mittalion, developed, today which is needed at a large of the one vote which is needed at a large of the lower and darks of the content of the lower and darks of the lower and the legislation of the legislation o

SIMPLEST SERVICE

Continued from Page One.

Roosevelt, Mrs. Frederick Roosevelt Samuel Roosevelt and Miss Nellie Ty Vice-President Present. Admission to the village church, where the colonel worshipped, was by card and was limited to fewer than Ariz., famous football and baseball player in his college days; Major Roscoe player in his college days; Major Roscoe Channing, former Princeton football player; Major Robert Channing, tennis player; Captain W. E. Dame, of Las Vegas, N. M.; Captain Arthur F. Cosby, active in the work of the Military Training Camps Association in the war; George and Charles E. Knoblauch, Charles Mills, Edgar Knapp, J. Lorimer Worden, W. A. Davidson, Kenneth D. Robinson and Guy Murchie.

Others invited include: Brigadier-General and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coudert, Major and Mrs. August Belmont, Otto H. Kahn, Ogden M. Reed, Frank A. Munsey, Colonel Henry L. Stimson, Owen Wister, Mr. and Mrs. William Loeb and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cortelyou.

Organizations Represented.

Organizations Represented.

Bay today in mourning the death of Theodore Roosevelt. While the funeral of the former President was being conducted in the town which knew him as a on joined with the village of Oyster Monday, but as far as can be learned ducted in the town which knew him as a private citizen, government activities, in so far as possible, ceased in the city which knew him as a public official. Flags over all government buildings were at half-mast and will remain so for sent committees.

Although, under an act passed in 1893, it was not possible to order the government departments closed, work was reduced to a minimum during the services

Cable From Sons on the Rhine. Captain Archibald Roosevelt received a cablegram today from Lieutenant-Colonel Theordore Roosevelt, Jr., saying

The following message came from General Ballington Booth, head of the Volunteers of America: "On behalf of our national staff, our commanding officers and the associate workers of the Volunteers of America throughout the country, I hasten to express profound sympathy with you in the loss you have sustained. In the passing of your husband the nation loses a distinguished scholar, an intrepid advocate of righteousness and an unswerving American "I hasten to express the Bells Tolled."

The following message came from GREENSBURG, Ind., January 8.—
GREENSBURG, Ind., January 8.—
Greensburg paid tribute to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt this afternoon and an entertainment and dance in the will be served, and all relatives and friends of men in the 137th and 139th field artillery regiments will be welcome.

The Reception Committee.

The entire reception committee. of righteousness and an unswerving American."

and told how, once, at Pine Knot, Va., the colonel identified more than eighty species of birds and fowl including two new birds, Berwick's wren and a rare wartler, unknown even to his older comrade. "Mr. Roosevelt was death to nature-fakers, as he called those writers who falsified nature," said Mr. 3urroughs, "and he dealt them some crushing blows. It was almost impossible to deceive him on subjects of natural history."

NEW YORK BUSINESS STOPS.

Trinity's Chimes Sound Funeral Toll as Traffic Hesitates.

NEW YORK, January 8 .- While th whole nation was mourning the passing of former President Roosevelt, this city, in which he was born, and to whose citizens he was perhaps most personalthe United States entered the war were memory as his body was being laid to rest in the little cemetery at Oyster Bay. Under a somber sky the aftermath of a spowstorm New York practically and the United States entered the war were the indirect cause of his leaving Columbia university, where he was associate professor of international law. He said while President Nicholas Murray Butter and the United States on the United State y familiar, paid tribute today to his can.

Precisely at 1:59 p. m. and until 2 o'clock, for one minute, virtually every phase of industry in Greater New York stopped, including the wires of the Associated Press. The roar of subway, elevated and surface cars ceased and the hum of marts of trade was hushed. In the morning $00,000 public school children held special exercises in their class rooms.

DAY OF MOURNING IN CUBA.

Havana to Erect Monument in Honor of Roosevelt to Cost $175,000. HAVANA, January 8.-The congress yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution declaring Wednesday a day of Among the organizations sending representatives were the American Academy of Arts and Letters, St. Nicholas Society, Campfire Club, Harvard Club, Boone and Crockett Club, Republican Club, American Defense Society and Union League Club.

WASHINGTON PAYS TRIBUTE.

Congress Takes Recess and Most of Official Business Stops.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—Washington loined with the village of Oyster to loined the village of Oyster to loined with the village of Oyster to loined the village of Oyster to loined with the village of Oyster to loined with the village of Oyster national mourning in honor of Theo-

Argentina Expresses Sympathy.

Pope Has Kind Words. ROME, January 8.-Theodore Roosevelt had many friends and admirers MESSAGES CONTINUE TO COME

MESSAGES CONTINUE TO COME

King of Italy and President of Brazil

King of Italy and President of Brazil

King of Italy and President of Brazil

seemed to meet with public approval.

Work Suspended at Anderson. [Special to The Indianapolis News]

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ANDERSON, Ind., January 8.—Public offices, many stores and factories were closed during the hour of the funeral of Theodore Roosevelt today. Mayor W. J. Black issued a proclamation requesting that tribute be paid by stopping work while the former, President was being buried.

Recounting visits of Mr. Roosevelt to Anderson, older citizens recalled that Colonel Theordore Roosevelt, Jr., saying that he and his brother. Lieutenant Kermit Roosevelt, both with the American expeditionary force in Europe, were together. Captain Archibald sent a cablegram in reply.

Theodore said also in his message that Dr. Richard Derby, husband of Ethel Roosevelt, was sailing at once for America. Lieutenant-Colonel Derby is in the medical corps, having salled for France early in the war.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, in a message, said: "With the entire nation I mourn the loss of Colonel Roosevelt, the greatest American and the first citizen of the world, but I grieve with you and the children as one of you as he goes from us and his great soul begins its journey. To me as to you his life has been an inspiration and a benediction."

[Special to The Indianapolis News]

ANDERSON, Ind., January 8.—Public offices, many stores and factories were closed during the hour of the funeral of Theodore Roosevelt today. Mayor W. J. Black issued a proclamation requesting that tribute be paid by stopping work while the former, President was being buried.

Recounting visits of Mr. Roosevelt to Anderson, older citizens recalled that when he was a candidate for vice-president a large number of young farmers rode near the stand where he sat. The hat of one of the horsemen, who were referred to as rough riders, blew off. Without dismounting the rider swung to the ground and recovered his lat. Mr. Roosevelt, observing the feat, heartily applauded the horseman.

Memorial Service Held.

[Special to The Indianapolis News] EVANSVILLE, Ind., January 8 .- On

E. C. STOWELL SAYS MOST OF FACULTY WISHED PEACE.

MET ALBERT AND W. B. HALE

WASHINGTON, January 8.-Testifying today before the senate committee investigating German propaganda, Ellery C. Stowell, of Washington, declared that his anti-German writings before tional headquarters of the "drys" gating the books of David C. Stout, re-Among the close friends of the former President invited were Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, former President William Howard Taft and former Justice Charles Evans Hughes. A delegation of Rough Riders, who served under Mr. Roosevelt in the Spanish-American war, had places of honor.

This contingent includes: Lieutenant Colonel John C. Greenway, of Bisbes, Ariz., famous football and baseball at a luncheon at which he said they "drank to the health of the German people, but not to the German government." He said he arranged later to review a book for Edmund von Mock, formerly associated with Albert, but at the fee was not paid because the BUENOS AIRES, January 8.—The Argentine foreign office has instructed the embassy at Washington to express to the United States government this country's sorrow over the death of the Country's sorrow over the death of the Country over the death of the Country's sorrow over the death of the Country over the country over the country over the death of the Country over the country over the death of were at half-mast and will remain so for thirty days in accordance with the proclamation issued yesterday by President Wilson at Paris. The senate, over which Colonel Roosevelt was the presiding officer for a short time before becoming President, stood adjourned. The house held only a brief session.

Representatives of the different branches of the government left Washington last night to attend the funeral. The senate and house of representatives sent committees.

The senate and house of representatives sent committees. Elkhart county. Senator Beardsley, Robert E. Proctor, former state senator, and John P. Ohmer, of Elkhart, repre-sented the city of Elkhart at the ban-quet. Senator Ray M. Southworth, of quet. Senator Ray M. Southworth, of Lafayette, was a guest and a speaker.

Battery E is commanded by First Lieutenant B. B. Brown, of Goshen, and the other officers are: First Lieutenant Lloyd H. Morris, Plymouth; Second Lieutenant George A. Jaderquist, Keyes, Cal.: Second Lieutenant W. G. Wallace, South Carolina, and Second Lieutenant H. C. Pond, Keokuk, Ia. Captain Elmer D. Rex, of Elkhart, regimental adjutant, and Second Lieutenant, Harry Taylor, of Elkhart, 139th field artillery, were guests at the banquet.

In comparison of the protection of the protectio

The train load of wounded soldiers from overseas, expected at the Ft. Harrison general hospital today, will

RECEPTION ON SATURDAY.

Woman's Auxiliary Will Entertain

Woman's Auxiliary Will Entertain

Soldiers at the Post.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the 38th division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men of the division has announced that its celebration in honor of the men and eleven woman and promoted John Dugan, patrollar, patrollar, patrollar, against whom charges of drukeness were to be preferred, was accepted. A leave of absence was granted Joseph P. Gibbons, patrollar, patroll bration in honor of the men of the division who have returned to Ft. Ben-

The entire reception committee has 1918,

George 1. Laney, of Rockprobably be chosen as campointed on the carpenter's garg from the committee.

House Caucus.

Wu of the Supplican memshows of representatives as house of the sonate.

HONE OF LAST LETTERS

NONE OF LAST LETTERS

NONE OF LAST LETTERS

Roseveit Made Plea for Suffrage between the committee.

None of the sonate of head, who, as president of the auxiliary,

Flags on the statehouse, Federal building, County building and city hall, and on practically all business houses which have flagstaffs, were at half-mast today, in respect to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, who was buried this afternoon.

PAGE TO RETIRE, IS REPORT

Ambassador to Italy Tired Out by Strain of War, It Is Said.

Miss Annabel Fox, Mrs. Alice M. French.

Canteen girls who will serve will be under the direction of Mrs. F. E. Long, the content of the content of the property of t

Hoop and Miss Mary Harter will be accompanists. Miss Dorothy Haines, Miss Alberta Yeagerline, Miss Esther Fieming and Miss Georgelia Scott will dance. An allied flag drill will be given by the following: Miss Catherine Howard, Miss Mabel Shoobridge, Miss Daisy Dixon, Miss Romilda Gaffron, Miss Georgelia Scott, Miss Christine Corden, Miss Helen Van Willer, Miss Beulah Kithler and Miss Esther Fleming Words for the flag drill are by William Herschell and music by C. A. Arbuckle.

"DRYS" LOOK TO INDIANA.

National Leaders Hope Legislature Will Act at First Session.

ectal to The Indianapolis News] WASHINGTON, January 8 .- The na- have been here for several days investi prohibition amendment to the Constitution of the United States on the first day of its session. It was said at headquarers that a large number of legislatures are planning to act in this prompt way. Ratification yesterday by the legislatures of Ohio, Cologia and Oklahoma brings the total training succeeded by Sweet. At the province of the books, the examiners say, have been badly mutilated making their work difficult.

Stout retired from office on January 1, being succeeded by Sweet. At the state of the prohibition amendment to the Constitution of the United States on the first day of its session. It was said at headquarers that a large number of legislatures are planning to act in this prompt way. Ratification yester day by the legislature of the books, the examiners say, have been badly mutilated. States on the first day of its session. It was said at headquarers that a large number of legislatures are planning to act in this prompt way. Ratification yester day by the legislatures of Ohio, Cologia and Oklahoma brings the total that the prompt way are planning to act in this prompt way. Ratification yester day by the legislature of Ohio, Cologia and Oklahoma brings the total that the prompt way are planning to act in the work of the books, the examiners say. to nineteen. Thus far not a state has that time it was found that the office refused to approve the amendment.

Mr. Stowall told of arranging to meet H. F. Albert and other German agents to obtain their explanation of why Germany entered the war, and of meeting Albert and William Bayard Hale in 1914 It a luncheon of Bayard Hale in 1914

POLICE ARREST CHRISTIAN FOR VIOLATING "DRY" LAW.

THREE OTHER MEN CAUGHT

THREE OTHER MEN CAUGHT

William F. Christian, said by the proper before the proper proper of a roadhouse at Forty-second street and the Allisonville plike, was arrested today on a charge again to get at B. F. Keith's theater, and the shell paid to the client of police.

The Hawaiian trio of singers at the Circle theater also will have a part, and it is likely that actors from the Park, Lyric and Majestic will have parts in the big program.

ENTERTAINS BATTERY E MEN. State Senator Beardaley Host to Elikhart Soldiers.

State Senator Beardaley Host to Elikhart, entertained 159 members of Battery E, 137th field artillery, at a banquet in the Rilley room at the Claypool hotel last night. The dinner was the first enfertainment that has been given for men of the Hoose's regiments now accomped for demobilization at Ft. Benjamin Harrison. Sixty of the men from Battery E are from Eikhart, and twenty and the police should be provided the police was arrested today by Jewish and the police was arrested today and arrested. The policement said they found the police said they found the police said the

G. H. HESTER REFUSES TO FILE APPEAL PAPERS.

When the cases were called today Judge Paris notified Hester to file his pleadings, and on the latter's declaration that he was not prepared to do so the court ordered him to file the pleadings from lower court and amend them later if he so desired. Hester declined to take further action and the judge ordered that he got to jail.

At the noon adjournment of court a personal encounter between Hester and Stotsenburg was averted by other attorneys.

CHANGES IN THE POLICE.

One Patrolman Reduced: Another Resigns-Fireman Is Reinstated. On recommendation of George V. Coffin, chief of police, the board of public safety today reduced Thomas Bledsee from traffic officer to patrolman and promoted John Dugan, patrolman, to traffic officer.

was granted Joseph P. Gibbons, patrolman, who is entering Knights of Columbus canteen work in France.

The board reinstated John DeKulled in the fire department. The report of John C. Loucks, chief of the fire department, for 1918, showed that 2,724 alarms were answered during the year and that 21,423 miles were traveled by fire department apparatus.

traveled by fire department apparatus.

Building operations in December exceeded those of the same month last year, according to the report of Blaine H. Miller, building commissioner. The record for December, 1918, was 222 permits on property valuations of $167,329 and $348.15 in fees. The record for December, 1917, was 130 permits on property valuations of $85,943 with fees of $189.95.

132 MEN DIE IN RUSSIA.

American Casualties to January 4 Are Reportd.

WASHINGTON, January 8,-Total eaths among the American expeditioneaths among the American expeditionary forces in northern Russia to January 4 were given as six officers and 126 men, in a cablegram received at the war department from Colonel James A. Ruggles, American military attache with Ambassador Francis at Archangel. The casualties were given as follows: Killed in action and died of wounds, 3 officers and 57 men; died of disease, 2 officers and 63 men; accidentally killed, 4 enlisted men; drowned, 1 officer and 2 men; missing in action, 16 enlisted men; wounded in action, 159; accidentally wounded, 15.

CASE OF DAVID C. STOUT, RETIR-

ING ALLEN COUNTY CLERK.

BOOKS MUTILATED, IT IS SAID

[Special to The Indianapolis News] FT. WAYNE, Ind., January 8 .- Examiners for the state board of accounts, was short $1,500, but little was thought of it for the reason that it was counter balanced by certificates of deposit made by Stout to the amount of $19,500, which it was first thought would take care of the delinquency. Stout, the new clerk, says that he used the money in speculating in real estate. He says, Sweet adds, that much of the money is tied up in a new flat building, in which he is interested, and that he will make good any shortage.

One Item for $6,000.

Many irregularities are said to have been found in the records of the clerk. In one instance there is an item for $6,000, which had been paid out, but Gilbert H. Hendren, chief examiner for the state board of accounts, said today that J. P. Haefling and Charles A. Ramsey, field examiners for the state board, have been working on Allen county books for more than a week, but that no report had yet been made to headquarters, as the inquiry was not complete. He said no definite statement could be made as to the condition of the affairs of the office.

THOUSANDS IDLE IN DETROIT Estimated That 25,000 Men Are Out of Employment.

Washington streets.

Physicians at the city hospital, where DeRossette was taken, said the bullet entered his leg just above the ankle and ledged against the bone. The wound is not believed to be serious, they said. Washington streets.

[Special to The Indianapolis News] WASHINGTON, January 8 .- The deartment of labor, through J. J. Walsh, encillator, has adjusted the strike of he 167 men and eleven women achine plant of the Haynes HIGHER COURTS' RECORD.

Kokomo Strike Settled.

SUPREME COURT MINUTES. 23364. Vandalia Railroad Company Gustave A. Schnull et al. Marion su ourt. Appellant's briefs on suggesti 348. Frank H. Wheeler vs. St. Paul Crushed Stone Company. Marion superior court. Appellee's petition for time, granted to and including March 10, 1919. 23460. Robert J. Spencer et al. vs. John B.

23460. Robert J. Spencer et al. vs. John B. McGuffin. Wabash C. C. Appellants' petition for time for reply brief, granted to and including February 10, 1919.
23500. Patterson M. Hearn et al. vs. William H. Canode et al. Randolph C. C. Appellants' petition for time, granted to and including March 8, 1919.
23400. Th. Standard Electric Manufacturing Company, etc. vs. Roy Tuttle et al. Marion S. C. Appellants' petition for time granted to-aid including February 11, 1919. APPELLATE COURT MINUTES.

10304. United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company vs. George S. Schauer Company et al. Marion S. C. Appellant's petition for time for reply briefs granted to aed including Pebruary 6, 1919.

10049. Ora Stapleton vs. Grace Stapleton. Madison C. C. Appellant's petition for time granted to and including March 11, 1919.

10449. Willis G. Simnerman et al. vs. Stuart A. Greene et al. Madison superior court. Appellants' petition for time to file briefs. Granted to and including April 21, 1919. APPELLATE COURT MINUTES.

Consumers Company, a cor oration, Joe Celelik, industrial bose, Lake Appellee's briefs. Appellee's objec-appellant's briefs. John O. Hoppes